

DUG AWARD 2019

Centre for Digital Based Britain for

The publication of the Gemini Principles to guide the information management framework for the creation of a national digital twin. Whilst the initial process was motivated by the requirement to generate a digital mapping of the UK infrastructure, the principles provide a framework that can be utilised in a wide variety of different situations across the UK.