

Data Analysts User Group Conference 2018

Analysis of Diversity and the Diversity of Analysis:

Rising to the Challenges...

The Royal Society, 6-9 Carlton House Terrace, London SW1Y 5AG Friday 26 October 2018

Focus Questions for the day:

1. How do we deliver analytical results that treat diversity fairly and without prejudice?
2. How do we realise the benefits of diverse teams in the delivery and output of analysis?

Programme

Non-disclosive Analysis of Diversity

Registration and Coffee (9.30)

1. Chair's Introduction
"Diverse Opportunities and Risks" (10.00)
Tim Drye, Director Data Analysts User Group
2. "What's in a Name..." (10.15)
Paul Longley, CDRC, UCL
3. "Taking a different viewpoint"
Duncan Mann Hoxton Analytics (11:50)

Coffee (11.30)

4. "The CDRC's Masters Research Dissertation Programme and Me" (12:00)
Masters Dissertation Panel
5. "Master Dissertation Awards Presentation" (12:45)
Guy Lansley, CDRC, UCL

Lunch, students' posters, & informal discussions (12.45)

Diversity in Practice

6. "Towards a Code of Practice" (14.00)
A Workshop Session to apply the Office of Statistics Regulation to the commercial context
7. "Experience in Boots" (14.30)
Gillian McNulty and Emma Eatch

Tea (15.15)

8. "Keeping things secret" (15:45)
Gentiana Roarson, GSS Quality Review Programme, ONS
9. "Diversity in a Crisis – The work of MapAction?"
Liz Hughes, CEO, MapAction (16.00)
10. Chair's Final Reflections and the DUG award (16.30)

Please stay for the drinks reception following the close of the conference.